ONLY VOTES THAT REACH THE BALLOT-BOX ARE COUNTED

HEIR TO AUSTRIAN THRONE AND HIS WIFE ASSASSINATED BY YOUNG STUDENT

FIGURES IN THE AUSTRIAN TRAGEDY

Frances Joseph, the agent and heir to the throne of Austria-Hungary. His wife was assassinated in Sarajevo on September 28, 1914.

The Archduke Francis Ferdinand (father of Francis Joseph) was assassinated in Sarajevo. His son, Archduke Otto, was also killed.

THE SCENE OF THE TRAGEDY

AUSTRIAN EMPEROR STIRRED WITH HORROR

Little sympathy, though, expressed by the populace.

THE ARCHDUKE WARNED

The Austrian Emperor said that the country was in a state of emergency.

HER IS THE ENGAGEMENT OF ARCHDUKE OTTO

In a letter to his mother, the Archduke Otto expressed his sorrow and pain.

THE LONDON TIMES

The London Times reported that the Archduke Otto was engaged to Princess Maria.

KING GEORGE ORDERS WEEK OF MOURNING

The King of England ordered a week of mourning.

SUFFRAGETTES BOMBARD THE KING AND QUEEN

The suffragettes bombarded the King and Queen in London.

ELECTION RETURNS

The election returns showed a narrow victory for the Conservative Party.

CALIFORNIA WRECKED ON THE IRISH COAST

Anchors Line On Rocky Off Tory Island

OVER 400 PASSENGERS

Her News Are Breathtaking and Satisfying for Toronto.

MANITOBA'S APPEAL

There is no dodging the issue, he declares.

PRINCE WINS GLORY IN THE SHAMROCK

Shows himself to be a Scoundrel of Great Aristocracy.

COWNED A $5,000 TO SHACKLETON EXPEDITION

The Liquor Trade Has a Sharp Knife for Rowell

Upon the letterhead of the Cochrane Brewery Co. of Toronto, Limited, the following letter, dated June 30, and marked "CONFIDENTIAL," was received by a well-known resident of Halton county:

"We would esteem it a great favor if you would assist us in the matter of the horse that has been in our stable for some time. It has been with us for quite a while now and it's time we did something for it. The horse is quite comely and gentle, and we would like to find a good home for it."

The letter was dated June 30 and signed in ink by a well-known resident of Halton county. The horse was later found to be quite comely and gentle, and a good home was found for it.