California passengers landed at Glasgow

Donald Maclean, J. S. Armstrong, and Mr. Stirling McBean, three of the most prominent tourists among the passengers of the S.S. Mount Lavinia, which arrived in this city yesterday, were on hand to greet their friends at Yarmouth.

About 300 people were on hand to greet the passengers, who were met by a Welcome Committee consisting of prominent citizens, including Mr. A. E. William, Mayor of Yarmouth, and Mr. A. L. Maclean, President of the Yarmouth Board of Trade.

The passengers were conducted to the Hotel de Paris, where they were entertained to a sumptuous dinner.

Several Canadians honored at Chicago

Frank T. D. of the Chicago Board of Education, who has been in Chicago for the past two weeks, arrived in this city yesterday.

He was met by a large group of friends, who welcomed him to Chicago.

The guests were conducted to the Hotel de Paris, where they were entertained to a sumptuous dinner.

Natures Uniformly Good

It is reported that the weather in the provinces of the interior province is generally good, and that the crops are progressing well.

The central province is also reported to be experiencing a bumper crop, with the wheat and barley fields looking particularly promising.

Archbald's Assassin May Escape Death

A man, believed to be the assassin of the Archbald family, was arrested in this city yesterday.

He is said to have been acting under the orders of a powerful criminal gang.

The man was brought before the police court yesterday, and charged with murder.

The trial is expected to take place next week.

Archduke's Assassin May Escape Death

A man, believed to be the assassin of the Archduke, was arrested in this city yesterday.

He is said to have been acting under the orders of a powerful criminal gang.

The man was brought before the police court yesterday, and charged with murder.

The trial is expected to take place next week.