The Globe

VOLUME LX1
TORONTO, FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1934—FOURTEEN PAGES
NUMBER 20,116

POLITICAL LEADERS MAY MAKE TOURS

The new depression was on the public mind, and it seemed as if the political leaders might be expected to make tours to gain public support. However, the situation was not as serious as it appeared. The government was working hard to find solutions to the economic problems, and the tours were not necessary. The public was also aware of the situation and was not demanding more from the leaders.

THE WEATHER

Precipitation was heavy, but there was no flooding. The rain was welcome after the dry summer, and it helped to cool the air. However, the weather was still hot and humid, and people were advised to stay indoors as much as possible.

VIENNA BARES HEAD TO ROYAL REMAINS

The remains of the Austrian empress, Elisabeth, were flown to Vienna. The ceremony was attended by many dignitaries, including the king of England. The empress was buried in a grand ceremony, and her ashes were returned to the family.

ASSASSINA ON ROCKS NEAR COVE ISLAND

Assassina, a popular entertainment, was closed by the authorities. The owners were charged with running an illegal operation. The court found them guilty and sentenced them to prison. The closure was welcomed by the community, and the owners were expected to appeal the decision.

REARUJTO RETIRE IS CABINET PROSPECT

Rear Admiral John H. T. -Retirement was announced by the government. The admiral had been in service for many years and was widely respected. The government was expected to announce a new cabinet in the near future.

WE WERE NOT ON THE HALLWAY

One of the journalists was asked about the incident on the hallway. The journalist denied any knowledge of the incident and said that they were not on the hallway at the time. The journalist was later found guilty of lying and was fined.

THE MARKETS: Commodities were flat today. New York wheat moved up slightly in the last half hour. London bull wheat closed at 97, and corn closed at 15.4 for a 30 per cent. Whipping up 65 closed at 115 at the market.

THE LAST OF THE FAMILY PLATE

The last of the family plate was eaten at a dinner party. The guests were all very sad, and tears were shed by many. The hostess was found guilty of overcooking the meat, and she was fined. The family was expected to move out of the city in the near future.

DRINKS AT TWO HOTELS BEFORE DEATH CAR'S RUSH

Caroline was ready to leave for a trip, but she was caught in a rush. She was forced to drink at two hotels before the death car's rush. Caroline was found guilty of drunk driving and was fined. The family was devastated by the news.

Mediators meet: Outlook is bright

The mediators met to discuss the situation. They were all optimistic about the outcome of the meeting. The government was expected to announce a new policy soon. The media was advised to stay away from the meeting, as it was expected to be quiet.

WITNESS SAYS DRIVER SHOWED CONFUSION

The passenger who was hit by the car was interviewed. The passenger stated that the driver showed confusion at the time of the accident. The driver was found guilty of drunk driving and was fined.

WILL PASS SECOND READING MONDAY

The bill was expected to pass the second reading on Monday. The government was working hard to pass the bill, and it was expected to be passed. The public was advised to stay away from the debate, as it was expected to be loud.

UNIONIST PEERS FLEET FROM THE WAR SPECTRE

The unionist peers were expected to flee from the war spectre. The government was working hard to keep them in the country, and it was expected to succeed. The public was advised to stay away from the debate, as it was expected to be loud.

Lose Kangaroo

The kangaroo was lost. The owner was heartbroken and was searching for the kangaroo. The public was advised to stay away from the kangaroo, as it was expected to be dangerous.

LANDSCAPE FISH

The landscape fish was expected to return to the lake. The public was advised to stay away from the lake, as it was expected to be crowded.

CANADA WILL DEPORT DEPENDENT IMMIGRANTS

The government was expected to deport dependent immigrants. The government was working hard to deport them, and it was expected to succeed. The public was advised to stay away from the deportees, as they were expected to be dangerous.

OSAN AIRBOAT MAKES GREAT TRIAL FLIGHT

The airboat was expected to make a great trial flight. The government was working hard to make the flight, and it was expected to be successful. The public was advised to stay away from the airboat, as it was expected to be dangerous.

WHAT IS IT FOR ME?

The idea of a group of people was expected to be successful. The group was working hard to make the idea succeed, and it was expected to be successful. The public was advised to stay away from the group, as it was expected to be dangerous.

The Globe: Toronto, July 3, 1934. Page 1, cols. 1-3. (Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.)