GEN. HUERTA QUILTS; NEW ERA FOR MEXICO

His Resignation Accepted By Chamber of Deputies and the Senate

General Carbajal Succeeds Him As Provisional President of War-ridden Republic—Huerta Held Office Seventeen Months and Assumed It on the Heels of the Arrest of Madero.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
MEXICO MAKES HISTORY.
MEXICO CITY, July 15.—Victoriano Huerta presented his resignation as President of the Republic to the Chamber of Deputies this evening through the Department of Foreign Relations. The resignation was referred to a committee after it had been read. The Deputies and spectators who filled the galleries shouted "Viva Huerta!"

The committee will report back to the Chamber, and the question whether the resignation will be accepted will then be decided.

MEXICO CITY, July 15.—All members of the Huerta Cabinet have tendered their resignations.

MEXICO CITY, July 15.—At 7:20 o'clock this evening Francisco Carbajal took the oath as the President of Mexico before the assembled Deputies and Senators. The new Executive, escorted by Presidential guards, went immediately to the National Palace. He was cheered by the people.

Mexico City, July 15.—General Victoriano Huerta resigned from the provisional Presidency of the Mexican Republic this evening, and his resignation was accepted by the Senate and Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 121 to 17.

Francisco Carbajal was then appointed President, and took the oath of office in the joint session of Deputies and Senators.

Huerta's resignation was submitted through the Department of Foreign Relations. It was read in the House, and was greeted with cries of "Viva Huerta!" It was then referred to the joint committee of Gobernacion. After brief consideration, the committee reported, accepting the resignation on the following terms:—

"Article 1.—We accept the resignation presented by General Victoriano Huerta as President of the Mexican United States.

"Article 2.—We call Licentiate Francisco Carbajal, Minister of Foreign Relations, to assume the Presidency."

A ballot was taken and the joint session approved the report.

President Carbajal proceeded to the national palace under an escort of Presidential guards, and all along the way was greeted with tumultuous cheering.

Commissioner Appointed.
After the acceptance of Huerta's resignation a Commission was appointed by the President of the Chamber to escort Senor Carbajal to the floor of the House.

Senor Carbajal appeared in front of the Chamber, passing through files of soldiers. He entered, and as he walked to the platform the Deputies stood. Speaker Mercado then administered the oath.

The new Executive again passed through double files of troops as he proceeded to the national palace. The military band played the national hymn, while the troops presented arms and rendered Presidential honors.

Huerta Visits Cafe.
Shortly after 8 o'clock tonight General Huerta, accompanied by a few friends, entered the French cafe which he has been in the habit of visiting several times daily for the past year or more, and took his usual place near the entrance.

An immense crowd followed the ex-President to the cafe, shouting

EX-PRESIDENT HUERTA.

WASHINGTON REJOICES WHEN HUERTA LEAVES

Constitutionalist Junta Mem- bers Are Highly Elated

Attorney Douglas of the Constitutionalist Agency Issues Statement in Which He Says Huerta's Elimination Means End of Regime.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)
Washington, July 15.—Naturally, the resignation of General Huerta caused great jubilation among Constitutional Junta members and in Administration circles when confirmation of the news was received here to-night. Senor Rafael Zubaran, chief confidential agent of the Constitutionalist, received direct information to-night from Mexico City that General Huerta resigned at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and that Francisco Carbajal was sworn in as Acting President this evening.

The manner in which the news was received by the Constitutionalist was evidenced by a statement made to your correspondent to-night by Charles A. Douglas, Attorney for the Constitutionalist Agency here, as follows:—

"I congratulate the Republic of Mexico and the Washington Administration on the elimination of Huerta and the beginning of the end of the Huerta regime.

"It is the beginning of a new era in Mexico, for it means the establishment of a free and stable Government, that originated with the people, was won by the people, and that will be sustained by the people of Mexico. I predict that with such a Government revolutions in Mexico will end."

Confirmation of Huerta's resignation was received by Secretary Bryan to-night, but he made no announcement. When news bulletins of today's historic events in Mexico were read to Secretary Bryan, he said he had no comment to make and would make no announcements before tomorrow morning.

What Will Carbajal Do?
Washington is now awaiting the announcement by President Carbajal of his attitude toward the Constitutionalist movement in Mexico. Whether there will be more battles between the Constitutionalist and Federalists will depend, it is asserted, upon whether Carbajal intends to offer further resistance or is willing to surrender to the Government of the Constitutionalist upon proper guarantee from the latter as to the protection of lives and property of Mexicans and foreigners.

The Wilson Administration is hoping that Carbajal will indicate promptly his decision not to further resist the Constitutionalist. The Constitutionalist agents express belief that Carbajal has merely taken over the executive power to hold until taken over by the Constitutionalist, and that there will probably be no more fighting.

C.N.R. TRUST DEED HAS RECEIVED RATIFICATION

Company Now Free to Put Bonds on Market—Critic- ism of Naming National Trust Co. as Trustee

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)
Ottawa, July 15.—After a lengthy meeting of the Cabinet Council this afternoon, at which the Prime Minister, Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, and others were present, the Canadian Northern trust deed empowering the company to go upon the money market and raise money upon the Government's forty-five million dollar bond guarantee was ratified by order in Council. The formality of affixing the signature of Sir Louis Davies, acting Governor-General, is all that now remains to be done.

With the consummation of these details and the execution of the trust deed the Canadian Northern is now free to proceed with the financing in accordance with the terms of the agreement passed in Parliament last session, and the Government of Canada becomes possessor of $40,000,000 worth of common stock of the company. The first stage of the partnership has been completed.

The bonds, it is understood, are to be offered at 102 and they may realize the $11,000,000 dollar advance to be necessary for the completion of the company's transcontinental system.

The company to which falls the honor and profit of being appointed trustee in the big transaction is the National Trust Company of Toronto, Ontario, a company which has also been appointed trustee, acting for the British bondholders. There is some disposition here to criticize the action of the Government in conferring this honor upon the National Trust Company, as Hon. W. T. White, the Minister of Finance, was formerly General Manager of the company, and Sir William Mackenzie, head of the C. N. R., was also prominently connected with it, though he now asserts that he has resigned, and Mr. Z. A. Lash, chief counsel for the C. N. R., is still prominently identified with the fortunate company.

It is understood that the G. T. P. trust deed will be executed this week, and that the Royal Trust Company will be appointed trustee.

STOPPED THE EMPRESS
FROM PICKING FLOWERS

PARK ATTENDANT IN PARIS EN-
FORCES LAW ON NAPOLEON
III'S WIDOW.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Paris, July 15.—A story is printed of an incident which occurred on the recent visit to Paris of the Empress Eugenie, widow of Napoleon III. She was walking in the Tuilleries Gardens, where once stood her splendid palace. She picked a flower from the border. An attendant saw her and said: "Picking flowers is strictly forbidden. I must report you."

He demanded her name and address and she answered timidly, "Eugenie." The attendant was struck at the melancholy aspect of the aged lady, and relented. The incident is not a name. However, never mind this time, but do not do it again."

MR. ASQUITH CONFERS WITH IRISH LEADERS

REPORTS ARE AFLOAT AS TO
RENEWAL OF CONVER-SATIONS.

(Canadian Associated Cable.)
London, July 15.—The Prime Minister had a long conference with the Irish leaders yesterday, and it is expected that the whole situation will be discussed, at to-day's Cabinet meeting, in the light of the new developments in the Lords.

The King's private secretary, Lord Stamfordham, visited the Prime Minister at the House of Commons yesterday and Sir Edward Carson's return to London, have set many rumors afloat as to the renewal of conversations. The Government, however, has made no approach in that direction. The interview of the King's secretary with Mr. Asquith has no undue significance.

Carson's journey to London was due to the possibility of the Government putting down the amending bill for discussion this week in the House of Commons. The Prime Minister will announce to-day the exact date of the introduction and second reading of the amending bill.

London, July 15.—Despite the feeling of optimism which is said to prevail as the result of Lord Beauchamp's declaration in favor of a conference on the lines of Lord Dunraven's amendment, it is difficult, says The Daily News, writing of the situation up to last night, "to see how a settlement can be arrived at in the present temper of the parties." The amending bill is disliked by all parties, and is regarded as a device solely to prevent bloodshed.

The attitude of the Government to the changes introduced by Lord Lansdowne and his colleagues with the object of safeguarding Ulster is still obscure, but certain conclusions for which there is support in Parliamentary circles, may be noted. The Government will resist the deletion of the referendum, but will concede the grouping of six Plantation counties as one area, to be decided by a poll, thus abandoning the original county option. The fiercest fight, if the amending bill ever goes into committee, will be on the referendum."

A FATAL JOY RIDE.
Vancouver, B.C., July 15.—Their automobile having overturned at a street corner in Durie, six miles out from Vancouver, five people were crushed under a heavy car at 1 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Peter Rianan was killed outright and her husband badly hurt. R. P. Seward, the chauffeur, and F. Brady, another passenger, Seward has taken his employer's car out for a joy ride.

TEED HELD THE BAG
FOR PREMIER FLEMMING

Tells How the Latter Asked Him to Take Over Timber
Graft Fund—Story of Its Collection and Distribution

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)
St. John, N.B., July 15.—E. J. Teed of Woodstock told to-day how he found the Dugal Commission how he "held the bag" for Premier Flemming. His memory was noticeably bad at times—but he remembered enough. He swore that it was Flemming who asked him to take over the timber graft fund levied by Berry, and Teed told how he did so, how he collected it, how he deposited it, how he loaned $15,000 of it to Flemming's lumber company, the loan being negotiated by Flemming; how some thousands of the funds were used to buy Gould stocks from Flemming—and so on. E. R. Teed is the man who the Premier said was "all right," and the man to whom Mr. Brankley's payments have been traced. He was the star witness of the day. Apart from serious lapses of memory at times, Teed made an excellent witness, and his story was one of the most interesting ever related in the old Court House.

It was at Premier Flemming's request, Teed swore, that he agreed to act as Treasurer of the fund. The Premier told him that the lumbermen of the Province "were getting up a fund for party purposes," according to Teed's understanding, and he said "W. H. Berry. As Berry was Crown official, Mr. Flemming said he thought it would not be proper for him to handle the funds, and so he asked his attorney, Mr. Teed, to hold the bag. To oblige the Premier, Teed consented, and he told of jaunts around the Province, to Chatham, to Newcastle and to St. John, to get the cash. The money was handed to him in large amounts at various times and placed by him in a safety deposit box. Premier Intimately Concerned.

At the afternoon session Mr. Teed continued the tale. Again the name of Premier Flemming kept bobbing up at regular intervals in connection with the fund. Although the witness said that he never told the Premier the total amount of the fund, he did tell him many other things, about where it was kept, when it was withdrawn, how it was invested, and so on. When Teed was seriously ill it

Town Planning

Mr. G. Wray Lemon, former Secretary of the Calgary Planning Commission, contributed two articles on Town Planning in Germany to the Illustrated Supplement a couple of months ago. These attracted considerable attention at the time. A third article from his pen will appear in The Globe of Saturday, accompanied by several illuminating illustrations. Mr. Lemon makes a brief study of the situation in Toronto, contrasts conditions here with conditions in Germany, and points out where improvements could be advantageously introduced. It is just such an article as this, showing how far short Toronto falls of the German ideal, that will awaken the public mind to a sense of the importance of town planning.

WAS TAMWORTH WOMAN VICTIM OF FOUL PLAY?

Mysterious Disappearance of Miss Blanche Yorke

Never Seen After She Left Doctor's Office, Where She Was Treated for Stomach Trouble—Was Highly Respected and Police Baffled.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)
Tamworth, July 15.—Where is Miss Blanche Yorke, popular dressmaker and refined young lady, who has been missing from her home here since July 8? This question is the one that is baffling not only the county police but the Provincial officers, who have been asked to lend their assistance in locating the young woman and clear up the mystery that surrounds her disappearance. Miss Yorke, playfully referred to in this district as "Happy," because of her radiant and genial disposition, was last seen on the evening of July 8. Since that time not even a clue as to her whereabouts has presented itself or been discovered by the police or search-party which is scouring the vicinity of the village.

Three theories have been presented. These are that the girl has met with foul play at the hands of some unknown person, that she has run away with herself, or that she has been taken from the vicinity to some other place, because of a position in which the young woman is alleged to have found herself.

Her last known appearance was at the office of Dr. Robinson in Tamworth on the evening of July 8, between the hours of 8.15 and 9.45. Dr. Robinson is a young physician, who has been in Tamworth for six months. He declares that the young lady called on him for treatment for stomach trouble. He says that he examined her and gave her a bottle of medicine, and that she left the office one hour after 9 o'clock. The medicine given to her, he says, contained some strychnine. The entire bottle, if taken at once, he says, would be sufficient to kill her. A possible clue to the mystery was given by the doctor, who states that next morning he found that a bottle containing about fifty carbons of mercury tablets, of which one would be sufficient to cause death was missing from a shelf near where he had examined the young woman.

Dr. Robinson says that she was in his office at 8.15, and left after nine. He did not see her afterwards. Miss Yorke was not missed until Saturday night. Her parents, who reside out in the country a short distance, thought that she was staying with the people for whom she was working. Daniel McGregor, the young man who was to have shortly married the girl, called at her home Saturday night, and not finding her went to the Walsh home. Not finding her there he raised the alarm, and search parties went searching for her since, but up to 9 o'clock to-night not a trace had been found of her.

Every effort possible has been made to locate her. With the circulation of stories which became grossly exaggerated as they travelled from tongue to tongue, a search was made of Dr. Robinson's home by A. B. Carcallan and Henry Richardson, Provincial Detective Miller, who arrived on the scene Monday, on being requested by some one to search the house also went through it.

Miss Yorke bore the highest reputation and mingled with the finest people in the section. The search parties are dragging Beaver Lake and searching the swamps, groves, and even the grain fields in the vicinity of the village.

But in spite of this, crop conditions in Brant county are generally good. Close to the city much of the land is given over to the growing of garden truck. These farms are looking well. There has been ample moisture so far this season, and the ultimate return to the farms should yield good profits.

Coming to the field crops, hay is not so good as last year. Last year's crop of hay in Brant county was decidedly good, so the farmers this season are reaping what they call an "average crop." But the prevailing prices are satisfactory, and one does not hear many complaints.

Fall wheat is not an average crop. The severe winter has had generally a harmful effect. This does not mean that fall wheat throughout the country is poor. There are many first-class fields, but the average will not be high.

Spring wheat, on the other hand, is looking well, and the outlook is much more promising. Barley and oats are late. The straw is small, but the heads are now filling out in splendid shape. Corn is also late, but will do better from now on.

Mixed Farming is Wise.
The root crops are looking as well as any. This is where mixed farming has its advantage. Conditions that do not suit one class of products help another and the result is not so bad.

Dairy cattle throughout the county are reported to be in a first-class condition. There are not many young cattle for sale, and what are raised are mostly for dairy purposes.

The buying capacity of the farmers does not appear to have been impaired by the trade depression. Local implement dealers declare that sales are good. Two of the largest firms state that their trade in Ontario never was better. Some of the factories have been running on shortened hours, but others have been able to keep their stores moving without decreasing the output.

Not Short of Cash.
On the whole the farmers in Brant County are not short of cash. They are busy what they want and paying for it on the spot. Local bank managers state that the farmers are maintaining good balances with them, and there has been no occasion to strain the credit line. This is regarded as one of the most healthy signs in the whole situation.

G.T.P. Now All Ready Except Quebec Bridge

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
Ottawa, July 15.—Collingwood Schreiber, chief consulting engineer of the Government, returned from an inspection of the G. T. P. from Winnipeg to Prince Rupert, announces that all sections of the line are linked, and will be ready to operate this fall. As the Government has completed the eastern section this means that the only gap now remaining from Halifax to Prince Rupert is the Quebec bridge.

BUTLER SAVED MASTER FROM RAGING MILITANTS

His Timely Intervention Prevents Secretary of State for Scotland From Getting a Sound Thashing—The Two Women Give Six Policemen a Busy Time.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
London, July 15.—It required half a dozen policemen for the removal of the Marlborough Street Police Court to-day of two kicking, clawing, screaming militant suffragettes, who earlier in the day had attempted to horsewhip the Right Hon. Thomas Mackinnon Wood, Secretary of State for Scotland. Only for the timely intervention of his stalwart butler, it is very probable that the Secretary would have been soundly thrashed. He was just leaving his residence when a woman rushed up, horsewhipping in hand, exclaiming: "You Scottish pig, if you don't stop the forcible feeding of women, we shall smash you."

The militant lashed him across the chest, but before she could deliver a second cut, the butler, who was standing on the steps, seized her and threw her sprawling to the ground, leaving him free to tackle the second woman, who was shouting: "Let me get at the Scottish pig."

She made a rush with her whip at the Secretary for Scotland and was still struggling in the butler's grip when the police arrived and bundled both women to the police station, where they were searched. On one of them was found a decomposed egg, labelled "Raffish fruit."

In the court the women gave their names as Janette Wallace and Bertha Watson. They were fined twenty shillings each, but refused to pay and were sent to jail for fourteen days.
