GEN. HUERTA QUITS; NEW ERA FOR MEXICO

His Resignation Accepted By Chamber of Deputies and the Senate

General Carranza succeeds Him as Provisional President of War-torn Republic—Huerta Held Office Seventeen Months and Assumed It on the Heels of the Arrest of Madero.

(Mexico City, July 15 — The resignation of General Huerta, President of Mexico, and the acceptance of his resignation by the Chamber of Deputies, was announced this afternoon.

The resignation is effective immediately, and General Carranza, who is now Minister of War, has been appointed by the Chamber of Deputies to succeed Huerta as President.

Huerta, who has been in power since December 1911, was forced to resign after a series of political crises and military uprisings.

The Chamber of Deputies met this afternoon and voted upon the question of accepting Huerta's resignation, which was submitted to them by the President.

General Carranza has been a prominent figure in Mexican politics for many years, and has been closely associated with Huerta.
