Probabilities :- Fine and warm. The sun rises at 4.53 a.m. and sets at 7.54 p.m. Next British mail, via the Tunisian, from

NUMBER 20,124.

VOLUME LXXI.

FURIOUS HINDUS BEAT BACK 200 POLICE AND SPECIALS

Unsuccessful Attends to Get Rid of Komagata Maru 2 Passengers

Vancouver Policemen and Immis tion Officials Going to Aid of Captain Met With Shower of Coal, Hatchets, Machinery and Other Missiles-A Score Wounded-Government Nonplussed at Seriousness of Situation

Several Seriously Wounded.

Vancouver, B.C., July 19.—A large slaught and endure the punishment body of Vancouver police and a con-without attempting reprisals. tingent of special immigration constables, numbering nearly 200 men descended early this morning in the tug Sea Lion upon the Komagata Maru, and after grappling her and playing a hose on the infuriated Hindus, were beaten back by showers of Many of the one of the Hindu interpreters leaned over the side and dragged the officer aboard again. Inspector McLeod reother missiles. attacked were injured, some ser-

Such was the result of an unsuc essful attempt in the midnight hours steamer and her unwelcome passenose application for entry into British Columbia has been refused by

A day or two ago the Canadian A day or two ago the Canadian Government decided, as an act of mercy, to provision the Komagata Maru for her voyage back to the Orient at a cost of $6,000. Plans were carefully matured by Malcolm Reid. Superintendent of the Immigration Department here; H. H. Stevens, M.P., and W. H. B. Ladner, with the result that at 1.15 this morning everything was in readiness.

Hindus Ready for Them.

Indus Ready for Them.

A large quantity of provisions was nother tug, together with 125 city olicemen, under Chief McLennan, and upwards of fifty special consibles, under Captain Warden. The same as the Sea Lion pulled away of Captain Pacific Railway Pier A'' was full of confidence and even liarity. The policemen had revolutes and the special men Ross rifles he Sea Lion slowly steamed out to the Japanese steamer, which lies only quarter of a mile off shore, optiet the immigration headquarters, pon arriving within hailing distance? The vessel it was seen that every chof space along the rail and on of the vessel it was seen that—every inch of space along the rail and on the deck and bridge was occupied by a Hindu armed with a club or other weapon, while in the bow of the steamer a solid mass was congregatous Storm of Missiles.

Only for a moment, however. The ext moment a most startling change courred. Rallying with what must admitted very considerable pluck,

WATERS' HEAVY TOLL: NINE MEN AND BOYS

Drowned in Six Places Yesterday

SOME TRY TO SAVE OTHERS

A Man Plunges at Once to Hi

(Special Despatches to The Globe.

Oakville, July 19.—Two drowning accidents occurred here to-day. The first occurred at 12 o'clock noon vhen Charles Grinham went bathins in the harbor between the piers. He plunge. The body was recovered in a few moments, and physicians worked for more than an hour in their en-Quite a number of men fell, stretched out by blows on the head, and in the crowding to that side of the tug farthest away from the Japanese steamer. Detective McArthur was forced overboard. A special constable named D. Collins, and one of the Hindu Interpreters leaned one of the Hindu Interpreters. deavor at resuscitation, but failed. De was an Englishman, an employee in the shipping department of annery, married about a year, and caused by the breaking of the pilot-house windows. Detective Tisdall was badly cut about the head. Massrs.

L. H. Taylor and G. L. Minnett 'ere both seriously hurt about the bad, the former heing particularly butt. Detectives Ricci and Sott were both badly hurt, and there as hardly a man upon the Komagata Maru side of the tug who did not receive an injury of a more or less serious nature.

Hindus Triumphant.

As the minutes passed and there was no cessailon in the hurricane of objects that came hurtling from the ship! Why doesn't the Captain move her?"

Eventually the grappling iron, attached to the Maru's rails, having been unloosed by some venturesome police constable, the Sea Lion, with her injured and angry crowd, slowly and sullenly moved away from the big vessol's side, while a vell of derisher and prolonged tom-tom playing, shouting and laughter from the riship and laughter from the loats proceeded to the scene and picker in the same to there with the color of the captain move here."

Port Stanley, July 19.—This aftermoon two young men hired a canoe was uncessary.

Proceeded to the lake, which was reached the end of the east break-body some constable, while a vell of development of the captain move here were and proceeded to the scene and picker triumphant Hindus followed in the few proceeded to the scene and picker triumphant Hindus followed in the latent predicament, threw off his coat and went and started to swim out to their triumphant. They had, the the ad, the malso, and Allen, seeing the to the making good headay, turned to them also, and Allen, seeing the to their was the stance. Two bods hurried to come back. Suddenly, when about the product of the to swim out of the feet from shore, the and product of the to swim out of the to swim out of the feet from shore, he captain and there was no cessation. They be developed to the load. Sott was and started to swim out of the feet from shore, he captain and the end of the to swim out of the feet from shore, he captain to their development, the sad, the at Samuel James' boathouse. They proceeded to the lake, which was rather rough for canoeins. When they reached the end of the east breakwater the canoe was seen to upset and both young men disappeared. Other boats proceeded to the scene and picked up the canoe, but the young men had found a watery grave. Grappling was started, but up to a late hour tanight neither body had been found. They appeared to have been strangers here, and so far their names and addresses cannot be ascertained. They sank in about thirty feet of water. One Panama hat with green Scotch plaid ribbon on it was washed ashore this evening. The boathouse man said

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 5.)

Sunday afternoon passed peacefully, although many Hindus in one party near the docks this morning were beaten by white men before help arrived. Chief of Police McLennan is OVERCOME BY FUMES OF GAS IN HIS WELL!

> SAD FATALITY TO H. BOTSFORD. AMHERSTBURG.

(Special Despatch to The Globe, Amherstburg, July 19 .-- Word ha of Henry Botsford, aged 33, a former in Bowell, Alberta. Mr. Botsford

The deceased was a son of the late Daniel Botsford of this town. He was married three years ago to Miss Ethel Marks, daughter of Captain Douglas Marks. The remains will leader, was again released from Holbe interred in Alberta.

Nonagenarian Wishes To Have Auto Ride

TORONTO, MONDAY, JULY 20, 1914—FOURTEEN PAGES

(Special Despatch to The Globe.) CHATHAM, July 19.-D. A Willcox celebrated his ninety fifth birthday yesterday. He has been confined to his home has been confined to his home for some years and bedridden for two years. He is one of the pioneer residents of the county, and for years was a cattle and horse buyer. He is very widely and favorably known. He has expressed the wish to have an auto ride. His father was born near Toronto in 1777, and moved to Kent county while it was still a willown on July 18, 1819. He left home to work for his uncle at the age of twelve, for which he received how shillreceived board and clothing. At eighteen he received five shillings a month. He bought his first farm two miles out of Chatham in 1850. He lived in Dover township forty years, and on his present home since 1900. His home is one of the historic points in the county.

BURGLAR DAshed acid INTO VICTIM'S FACE

Julius Ramm Awakened to Find Thief in Room

Which Householder Was Foreman was arrested late Saturday night by Rely on Lloyd George.

result of the strike which is now in progress at the Dominion Cloak Com-pany, and which has been the cause of much trouble.

found that the man had taken from his trouser pockets while ing the place of the strikers.

The police believed that the acidthrowing was indirectly the result of the strike, as the man taken into custody was at one time employed by the cloak company.

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst

London, July 19.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette

KING AGAIN ASSUMES PEACEMAKER'S ROLE

Calls Conference of Leaders on Home Rule Bill

PROGRAM FOR TO-DAY

Premier Asquith Will Indicate What is to be Done With the Amending Bill and Later the House of Commons Will Adjourn. ·

(Canadian Press Despatch.) London, July 20.—The King has called a conference of the leaders of all the parties to seek a solution of the Irish problem. This is the monentous announcement which Pre nier Asquith is expected to make to when the bill amending the iome rule bill comes up again onsideration in the House of Com-

he Lords' amendments to the amending bill, is awaited with the deepes enxiety, and it is probable that the House will immediately adjourn the House will immediately adjourn the debate on the amending bill indefinitely, to allow the negotiations for a settlement to proceed outside of Parliament. Premier Asquith has been with the King at Portsmouth during the week-end, and the King's anxiety to get the difficulty settled resulted in the decision to call a conference.

Charged with burglarizing the residence of Julius Ramm, 631 Manning avenue, a foreman employed by the Dominion Cloak Company, Richmond street, near Bathurst street, Joseph Willinsky, 32 Ulster street, was arrested late Saturday night by Detective Frank Wickett. When the foreigner appears in the Folice Court to-day a much more serious charge may be preferred against him, that of attempting to do bodily injury to Ramm.

The police have reason to believe that the burglary and the alleged attempt to injure Mr. Ramm was the result of the strike which is now in pany, and which has been the cause of much trouble. ielding attitude of the Nationalia The Chapcellor of the Excheq

John Refimond, the Nationalist leader, in an endeavor to find points of common agreement. Mr. Red-mond has called a conference of his

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 3.)

OTTAWA ROUGH RIDER BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS

DRAMATIC SUICIDE OF HAL WALTERS, WELL-KNOWN SPORTSMAN.

Ottawa, July 19 .- Hal Walters, the famous former Rough Rider football South African veteran.

He entered the barroom Bodega Hotel and without warning pulled the gun. The first bullet only scratched his head and passed won't miss again, so, good-bye, boys," he is reported to have said, and before anyone could intervene he had sent the second bullet into his brain.

During the last few years Walters meline Pankhurst
Is Again Liberated

the second pullet into his brain.

During the last few years Walters had acted as a special constable at the Dominion Theatre. He had not been drinking, and no special reason to the special reason for the suited.

KING WILL REVIEW BRITISH HOME FLEET

HIS MAJESTY IS DETAINED - HE WILL SPEND TWO DAYS AT SPITHEAD.

Spithead, Eng., July 18.—The British home fleet, comprising almost the entire navy, to-day gathered in the roads here for its annual review by King George, the Commander-in-Chief. His Maiosty, however, was de-tained in London by the political sit-uation, but it was announced that he expected to pass a couple of days with the warships before their dispersal. The program of the review com-prised flights of aeroplanes and air-ships attached to the Royal naval flyover 400 craft of all types are assembled, and all are fully equipped and manned, numbers of the naval reserves having been called up for

When a Street Car Is Not a Street Car

INGERSOLL, July 19.-An interesting judgment in two automobile cases which came before him recently was given by Magistrate Paterson vester-Gibbs of Brantiord and A. E. Ratz of Tavistock, were charged by Constable Scurrah of Beachville with driving past a street car at that village while it was standing to take on and displaying more and the state of the state of it was standing to take on and discharge passengers. As the legal point was raised during the hearing of the cases that the street car was not a street car at Beachville, so far as the act was concerned, the outcome of the cases was anxiously awaited by automobilists.

The Magistrate sustained the argument, holding that, according to the railway cunning on the streets of a city or town, and extending one and one-half miles beyond the limits. As the definition mentioned was very clear, the Magistrate dismissed the cases.

BLANCHE YORKE MAY BE IN TAMWORTH

Theory Gains Ground That She is in Hiding

Her in Charge, Never Thinking of Tamworth, July 19.—The circle is getting smaller. The clue is present-ing itself. The whereabouts of Miss Detimistic Farmers.

Blanche Yorke, who suddenly disappeared on the evening of Wednesday of last week, will be known in a few days. Quiet observation and sober thinking have changed the trend of thought. The auto started it, but it is now believed that perhaps the auto didn't go very far away after all. The young lady may be in a house in Tamworth itself. There is no positive evidence that she is, but circumstances and the attitude assumed by some when the matter is mentioned leads to the belief that several neoned. know where the girl is. Moreover turbed as to her safety.

Astonishing Complacency.

They look at it with a complacency It means that the girl's appearance right in Tam-Whether this will be within a few days or two months depends on the information secured by the police and the persistence of the people with whom she is "stopping." if such it an be called.

To claborate on the theory, it is to the effect that some one who knew the young woman's condition sought to do a kindness to her either by keeping her or sending her away. The former course is the more reasonable.
The auto was probably in the game too. On such a theory it is evident (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3.)

OPTIMISM PREVAILS WITH KENT FARMERS

Harvest

Corn and Fruit Promise Good

SPRING CROPS ARE GOOD

ter Than in Most Counties - A Rich County, and Evidently

Chatham, July 17.—In any survey crop conditions in western lario Kent county occupies an important if not a strategic position. northeast for the most part by mixed quickly as one steps into this county gion is felt, and one finds himself in a salubrious climate suggesting places much farther south than this part of he temperate zone. If farming were hardly be a success anywhere. Given climatic conditions for the most part favorable, a soil that is rich in fertility and a genius for making the most of these things, the man who undertakes farming in Kent haz much dertakes farming in Kent haz much in his favor.

Before passing in detail upon the crop prospect, even the most prosaic could hardly fall to be quickened by the splendid landscapes that attract the eye as one proceeds from place to place. There is something inspiring in the clean, "well-groomed" fields that front both highway and railroad. The hay is ready to cut, the wheat is taking on its golden sheen, the barley is bending its silken head in the winnowing breeze, and the corn the winnowing breeze, and the corn is bounding in the cars under the impulse of sunshine and moisture.

Optimistic Farmers,

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 3.)

FLEMMING'S USEFULNESS

AS A LEADER IS GONE

St. John Globe, Hitherto Staunch Supporter, Calls on New Brunswick Premier to Resign-Appeal at Once to Electors.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.) St. John, N.B., July 19.—The John Globe, which has been an ardent supporter of Premier Flemming and his Administration, in its leading editorial yesterday calls on the Premie to resign. The Globe says: "Hon. Mr. Flemming's testimony before the Commission investigating the Crown timber lands scandal charges has established the fact that he knew lumbermen of all shades of politics were contributing to an im

Bug on Nose Nearly Causes Man's Death

(Special Despatch to (The Globe.) WINDSOR. July 19 .- The alighting of a June bug on the nose of John Thompson, Monmouth road. Walkerville, as he was stepping from a Belt line car last night nearly caused his death. Releasing his hold of the handrail to knock the insect from his nose, he lost his balance and fell heavily on his head. He sustained a slight fracture of the skull, but will recover. mouth road. Walkerville, as he parent to Hon. Mr. Flemming himself, as well as to his party, that his usefulness as a political leader is gone. If he has not already tendered his resignation. the Licutenant-Governor should insist that he do so at once.

he knew lumbermen of all slandes of politics were contributing to an immense campaign fund for the benefit of his Government. This fund was aembled, and all are fully equipped and manned, numbers of the naval reserves having been telled up for service.

A SIXTY PER CENT. CROP.

But Saskatchewan Farmers May Look For Exira Good Prices.

(Canadian Frees Despatch.)

Saskatoon. Sask., July 19.—The western correspondent for Broom hall expresses the opinion that Sâstattopean's correspondent for Broom hall expresses the opinion that Sâstattopean's crop would be about sixty per cent. of normal this year, but that the price to the farmes, would be butter than for the past three or four years.

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE RECOUNT

Portage la Prairie constituency of Portage la Prairie constituency as a result of the agent of Hon. Hugh Armstrong, defeated by E. A. McFaerson, Liberal, by six votes.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY

- Datatled weather report, page 6.

 L. Hindus riot at Vancouver. Premire Flemming criticized. Many drowning
- in Ontario
- in Ontario.

 Hamilton news.

 North York Liberal picnic.

 Editorial.

 Woman at work and at play.

 7. Toronto news.

 9. Sporting news.

 11. Financial and commercial news.

 13. Condensed advertisements.

 Wood alcohol causes two deaths. Capt.

 Storey dead.
 - Storey dead
- TORONTO. Mr. Philip Snowden, M.P., who is visiting Canada, discussed British political condi-
- A. Paterson, K.C., laid the corner the new Fairbank Presbyterian
- Otto Kanaiski, Richmond street west drank lye in mistake for water in the dark ness and was terribly burned. Prof. James Mayor has been given a year's leave of absence by the University of Toronto to lecture in India.

Julius Ramm, Manning avenue, was awakened from sleep by a burglar in his foom and had a quantity of acid thrown in THE DOMINION.

- King township Liberals held a successful enic on Saturday at Kattleby. Six vessels were wrecked in the storm the Nova Scotian coast, but with no loss Two young men, believed to be from St
- nomas, were drowned by the capsizing of cance in Lake Erie, off Port Stanley. A Laberal Club was formed at Newmer-set for the North, Riding of York, with an initial membership of one hundred and ten-James Walker of Toronto and C. S. Brown of London, Ont., beating their way to the west, died at Ignace from drinking wood alcohol obtained at Fort William.
- Charles Grinham was drowned at Oak-

- The Hindu situation at Vancouver is ex-tremely serious, a force of police and im-migration officers having been driven back by the enraged Hindus from the Kome-Maru, and a score wounded by missiles.
- David Hicks, an English boy of fifteen, recently arrived, and Antonio Barto, an Italian, aged fourteen, were drowned at Queenston, the former trying to save his companion, who had got beyond his depth.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

King George has called a conference of all the party leaders on the home rule ques-

A third motor and along with it 1,000 pounds more lifting power will be added to the airboat America.

Steamship Arrivals

Steamers	Αt	r rom	ì
Scandinavian.	. Glasgow	. Montreal	Ì
lvernia	. Patras	.New York	i
Celtic	.Yew York	.Liverpool	ĺ
La Touraine	. New York	.Havre	ŀ
St. Paul	Southampton.	New York
Olympic	. Southampton.	. New York
Main.	Southampton.	Nam Vork
G. Washington	southampiou.	New York	ı
Caseleta Z	. Naples	New York
K. F. Joseph.	.Nu ples	New York
Oceania. J	.Trieste	New York	i
Patria	. Marseilles	New York
	Halifax
Kursk	.Libau	Palermo
izmp, opindia	Hong Kong	. Vancouver
(Money d)	.St. John	godner
Virgio an	.Montreal	Livernaci
Tunidan	. Montreal	Liverpool
Teut nic		Liverpool
Ands e ia	. Montreal	Liverpool

wake.

Slowly the Sea Lion made her way back to the dock. Doctors Monroe and Kennedy attended to the wounded as she went, and many of the police force showed the benefits of their knowledge of first aid to the injured by their dexterity in binding up wounds of their fellows.

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

WOMAN FATALLY HURT

Fell From Table Across Back of Pe

ly injured yesterday when, while as in Church She Was Cleaning...

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

July 19. -- Mrs.

Affrays Near the Docks.

Bothwell.

A. E. Hensen of Toronto is in the custody of the Federal authorities in California.

Minority stockholders of the New Haven Railroad have filed a suit in equity agains: the directors.

Steamers	A t	From
ndinavian6	lasgow	Montreal
rnin P	atras	New York
tic	ew York	Liverpool
Toursine N	ew York	Havre
	outhumpton
mule S	outhampton	New York
in C	outhampton	Raltimore
A Viotania M	outhumpton	New York
Washington	herbourg	You York
obeta Zuna	aples	Naw York
La Taggarah	in ples	Von Vork
r. ansepa	rieste	Now York
ennia.	Iarseilles	Now York
ITIH	iarsemes Inlifax	New York
rsk.	ibau	L'Alermo
ib. ob mura. "	Iong Kong	vancouver
	t. John
nag	I. John	syane,
guenn	iontreal	Liverpool
ni#180	fontreal	Liverpool

VESSELS WRECKED IN GALE AND FOG

Heavy Storm Sweeps Coast of the Atlantic-But No Lives Are Lost-List of the Wrecks Off Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

ing shore in safety, but some of them had a trying experience, as thick fog had prevailed.

The vessels were the Norwegian steamer Ragna, 1,052 tons, from Chester, Pa., to St. Ann's, C.B., which ran ashore at Ballena, C.B., and the Cuban steamer Clenfuegos, 1,139 tons, which struck at Scattarie, C.B., bound for Mobile, Ala., with a cargo of pine for Montreal.

The schooner Harold C. Beecher (American) also struck on Scattarie. She salled from New York for Sydney.

(Canadian Press Despatches.)

Halifax, N.S., July 19.—Two steamers and two schooners were wrecked during the past 24 hours as the result of the heavy storm that swept over the coast. Fortunately there was no loss of life, all the crews reaching shore in safety, but some of them had a trying experience, as thick fog had prevailed.

The vessels were the Norwegian steamer Ragna, 1,052 tons, from Chester, Pa., to St. Ann's, C.B., which ran ashore at Ballena, C.B., and the Cuban steamer Clenfuegos, 1,139 tons, which struck at Scattarie, C.B., bound for Mobile, Ala., with a cargo of pine for Montreal.

The schooner Harold C. Beecher (Canadian Press Despatches.)

ian barque King Malcolm, Captain Mortola, bound from Portland, Maine, to Richibucto, N.B., in ballast, is probably a total loss at Short Beach, about seven miles from Yarmouth. She left Portland, about noon on Friday and struck at 6 o'clock on Saturday morning. She was lightered. A strong flood tide and southerly gale, together with the treacherous Bay of Fundy currents, carried her off her course, all the treacherous Bay of Fundy currents, carried her off her course, and she is parity full of water. A survey was held this afternoon, and an effort will be made to salve her. The King Malcolm is of iron, and registers 1,300 tons. She is twenty-left water of the problem of the problem of the problem of the problem. Schooner Jennie A. Pickies, Too.

She salled from New York for Sydney.

The four-masted American schooner Clarence Venner struck off Cape Sable, N.S. She was bound from New York for Hallfax with 1,200 tons of hard coal.

All the vessels are in had positions, and the prospects of floating them are slight.

The coast was swept by a gale of wind and heavy squalls. There was also thunder, lightning and ralh.

Yarmouth, N.S., July 19.—The Ital-

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.