ARMY AND NAVY PREPARE TO QUELL HINDUS TO-DAY

The Cruiser Rainbow to be Assisted by Two Hundred Troops

SERIOUS SITUATION IN CALCUTTA - Effort to Deport the Rebels by Fellow-subjects - The Negotiations of the Indian Premier Borden and Ministers Stay at Capital

THOUGHTS ON THE Day of EXCITEMENT - IX - The Globe

THE GEMANY SCANDAL GROWS

It is now more than three weeks since The Globe directed the attention of Sir James Whitelaw, the scathing conduct of Mr. R. G. Gamey, member for Mackinlou, in levying what was in effect forced contributions from his constituents for their welfare. The tribute must be paid to him that the following letter had been addressed by Mr. Gamey to a number of his constituents, and that at least three cases the subscribers are to be envied for having "in good conscience" their contributions for the welfare of his constituents. It is more likely that they dared not take the risk of levying new taxes. Here is the letter. Let the reader consider how he would regard it, coming from a man in another country.

THE AMAZING LETTER

"R. G. Gamey, M.P.P., Broker."
"Office: Traders Bank Building, 7225.

"Dear Sir-I am selling some stocks of Elizabeth Mill, L.L.C., at sixty cents per share. I am President of the company, and we have done a good deal of business. I am paying for the new stock, and I would like to sell it for fifty cents per share. I am willing to guarantee that the company will make a profit, and I am willing to take the risk. I can see no objection to the proposal, and I am willing to accept the offer."

"The purpose of the company is to exploit the water power in the vicinity of the mills. I am willing to guarantee that the company will make a profit, and I am willing to take the risk. I can see no objection to the proposal, and I am willing to accept the offer."

"(Signed),
R. G. GAMEY.

NOTHING TO SAY.

Of the letter and the conduct of Mr. Gamey when the matter was first brought to his attention, Sir James Whitelaw curtly said, "I have nothing to say." He made reference to the letter and delivered a speech. The Globe said -

"Objections to ask the Premier of Ontario what his views are as to the moral quality of the letter and the conduct of Mr. Gamey."

"Mr. Howard, one of our constituents, knowing the facts, and recommending the letter to the Premier of Ontario what his views are as to the moral quality of the letter and the conduct of Mr. Gamey."

"The Premier of Ontario still has nothing to say. We cannot give the Premier any additional reasons for repudiating and condemning the conduct of the letter and the conduct of Mr. Gamey."

"The Premier of Ontario still has nothing to say. We cannot give the Premier any additional reasons for repudiating and condemning the conduct of the letter and the conduct of Mr. Gamey."

BIG HAUL FROM LICENSE HOLDERS.

The Globe heard some time ago that Mr. Gamey had raided livestock, buyers of livestock, and they were later to prove the story. As the fishermen of the Fishermen's Union of Mackinlou, Mr. Howard, one of our constituents, knowing the facts, and recommending the letter to the Premier of Ontario what his views are as to the moral quality of the letter and the conduct of Mr. Gamey."

"The Premier of Ontario still has nothing to say. We cannot give the Premier any additional reasons for repudiating and condemning the conduct of the letter and the conduct of Mr. Gamey."

"The Premier of Ontario still has nothing to say. We cannot give the Premier any additional reasons for repudiating and condemning the conduct of the letter and the conduct of Mr. Gamey."

ARMY WORM MIGRATIONS APPEAR IN NEW PLACES

Farmers alarmed at devastation of crops and pastures - Pest spreads from Essex to Ontario - Constituents express hope to win fight soon.

General HurstLeaves Mexico

[Continued from page 3, col. 1]