

THE MARKETS. Canadian markets rallied after a sharp decline. New York declined sharply. London very weak.

THE WEATHER. Probabilities:—Fair and warm; showers in some localities.

VOLUME LXXI.

TORONTO, MONDAY, JULY 27, 1914—FOURTEEN PAGES.

NUMBER 20,130.

BLOODSHED IN IRELAND—AUSTRIA AND SERVIA ON BRINK OF WAR

SOLDIERS KILL FOUR IN RIOT AT DUBLIN

Sequel to Gun-running by Nationalist Volunteers

Sixty Wounded in Hospital Following a Serious Outbreak in Irish Capital—Excited Crowds Fill the Streets—More Trouble Expected

DUBLIN, July 26.—(Canadian Press Despatch.) Three men and one woman are dead and more than sixty persons are in the hospital as the result of a battalion of the King's Own Scottish Borderers firing into a mob in the streets of Dublin this afternoon.

The affray was the result of a gun-running exploit of the Nationalist Volunteers, who were being aided by a mob composed largely of women and youths.

MANY RIFLES SEIZED. A consignment of rifles, said to number 10,000, was landed last night at Howth, nine miles from Dublin.

A battalion of the King's Own Scottish Borderers was ordered to capture the arms this afternoon, when the authorities heard that the volunteers were bringing them into the city.

RIOTS IN THE STREETS. The soldiers encountered a detachment of volunteers at Clonmel bridge and an outbreak resulted. There was no shooting then, however.

STREET COVERED WITH WOUNDED. The battalion then replied to the attack of the mob with a scattered fusillade. In an instant the street was covered with wounded, while terrified men, women and children ran in all directions.

EXCITEMENT IN DUBLIN. Excited crowds filled the streets of Dublin to-night, some of the men carrying rifles. The Borderers are confined to barracks to prevent the people from attacking them.

Later Details. Dublin, July 26.—The arms were landed at noon to-day, instead of last night, as was first reported.

Police Beaten Off. A thousand volunteers marched openly from Dublin to receive the arms. They said, however, that they were merely making a practice march.

Excitement in Dublin. Excited crowds filled the streets of Dublin to-night, some of the men carrying rifles. The Borderers are confined to barracks to prevent the people from attacking them.

The Dublin Affair Called "a Massacre"

(Canadian Press Despatch.) LONDON, July 26.—The Daily News calls the affair at Dublin a massacre and demands a rigid investigation of the conduct of the soldiers.

ULSTER PROMPTLY SHOWS DETERMINATION

A Demonstration by the Volunteers

Belfast Parade the Boldest Yet Shown

Belfast, July 26.—A parade of two full regiments of Ulster volunteers, numbering several thousand men, was held here to-night. All the men carried rifles and their equipment included several machine guns, which were strongly guarded.

Referring to Ireland, and the failure of the recent conference of party leaders, held at Buckingham Palace, in a speech at Steyning to-night, Francis D. Acland, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, said: "There is much cause for regret, but much for hope."

British Consuls to Help Canadians

(Special Despatch to The Globe.) Ottawa, July 26.—In accordance with arrangements between Sir George E. Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Sir Edward Grey, British Foreign Minister, made in 1912, the British Consulates at the following places will now answer inquiries and give information to Canadians wishing to consult them on trade matters.

SENATOR M'MILLAN DEAD

He was in his eightieth year, and had been ill a short while. (Canadian Press Despatch.) Alexandria, Ont., July 26.—Hon. Donald McMillan, Senator of the Dominion of Canada, died here at 8:30 o'clock to-night, after a short illness.

Board of Mediation Has a Stiff Task

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Chicago, July 26.—The Federal Board of Mediation and Conciliation, which has struggled for a week with the wage dispute between the management of western roads and their 55,000 engineers and firemen, conferred to-day with both the employees and the managers.

Steamship Arrivals

Table with columns: Steamers, At, From. Lists arrivals from various ports like Liverpool, Palermo, Havre, etc.

INSPIRING LESSONS FROM THE WAR OF 1812

Glories of War and Peace Sounded at Lundy's Lane Celebration — Dr. Alex. Fraser on Why the British Won — An International Jubilation.

(Staff Correspondence of The Globe.) Niagara Falls, Ont., July 25.—Under circumstances of memorable local enthusiasm and international concord, the one hundredth anniversary of the Battle of Lundy's Lane was celebrated here to-day by a crowd estimated at ten thousand persons.

FIRE SWEEPS TOWN: WIPES OUT STREETS

Business Area of Dancroft Gutted by Flame Fiend

(Special Despatch to The Globe.) Bancroft, Ont., July 26.—The whole business area of the town of Bancroft was practically wiped out by fire to-night. The destructive blaze, fanned by a strong wind, played havoc.

EUROPEAN RULERS STRIVING FOR PEACE

A Significant Meeting Held at Stockholm

(Canadian Press Despatch.) London, July 27.—The Morning Post's St. Petersburg correspondent says he hears that Emperor William paid a secret visit to Stockholm, where he had an interview with President Poincaré of France, in connection with the Austro-Serbian crisis.

HELD WIRELESS MAN PRISONER ON BOAT

BUT POLICE MET TURBINA AND ARRESTED SEVEN — A SUNDAY RIOT.

Seven men, pointed out to waiting police officers by the captain and officers of the steamer Turbina, were arrested at the dock on the arrival of the steamer at 1 o'clock this (Monday) morning. They are charged with engaging in disorderly conduct of a most abusive kind during the voyage, and of carrying the wireless operator.

ON THE TRAIL OF GAMEY

HAMILTON, July 25. — (Special.) — R. R. Gamey, M.P.P., spent a profitable week in Hamilton a year ago last winter, when he succeeded in getting fifty-five Hamiltonians to subscribe for stock in the Elizabeth gold mine.

WAR ALMOST CERTAIN IN EASTERN EUROPE

Austria and Servia Have Broken Off Relations

Servian, Austrian and Russian Armies Mobilizing—Negotiations Have Failed—Excitement in the Capitals.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) VIENNA, July 26.—Diplomatic relations between Austria-Hungary and Servia were formally broken off last night. War is regarded by the public as almost a certainty.

The Servian Minister and his staff left Vienna last night. A military censorship has been established in the telegraph offices here.

The Servian Government waited until the last moment left it by the terms of the note, and only ten minutes before the hour of 6, when the Austro-Hungarian ultimatum expired, did the Servian Premier appear at the Legation and present his Government's reply to the Austrian Minister, Baron Gleil Von Gieslingen.

Immediately upon receiving the note the Austrian Minister informed the Foreign Office, and diplomatic relations were broken off. Half an hour later the Minister and his staff, with their families, had boarded a train for Austrian territory.

According to newspaper messages received here the mobilization of the Servian army was ordered at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. King Peter, who had hurriedly returned to Belgrade when the Austrian ultimatum was announced, left the capital this evening on a special train with the principal members of the Government, in the realization that the Austrians could capture Belgrade without difficulty.

The portentious news of Servia's decision was made known to the public by extra editions of the evening papers, and at 8 o'clock to-night half the population of the city seemed to be on the streets.

Count Von Berchtold, the Austro-Hungarian Minister of Foreign Affairs, visited Ischl early in the afternoon and had a long audience with the Emperor. Later he conferred with the Minister of War, General Krobatin, and the Emperor's Chief Military Adviser, General Baron Bolfras Von Annenberg, and the Minister of Finance.

Count Von Berchtold had another audience at 7 o'clock with the Emperor, to whom he communicated the Servian note. It is reported that partial mobilization of the Austrian army has been ordered.

No Declaration Yet. Vienna, July 26.—No declaration of war has been issued, and it is believed none will be, since Servia never subscribed to The Hague convention.

The report that the Servian Minister, M. Jovanovitch, left Vienna yesterday was incorrect. The Foreign Office sent him his passports to-day, and he will leave immediately. The sending of passports is deemed equivalent to a declaration of war.

There were patriotic demonstrations throughout the day, although a heavy rain was falling. Great crowds gathered in front of the War Office and cheered the officers who appeared. Processions, with flags flying, filled the streets.

Italy Will Keep Out. Italy has informed Austria that in the event of an armed conflict with Servia she will adopt a friendly attitude in accordance with her relations with the triple alliance.

Proclamations have been posted ordering partial mobilization. The Austro-Hungarian Bank has raised the rate of discount.

SUDDEN "CLEAN-UP" STARTLES PORCUPINE

Fifty-one Charges for Breaking Liquor Laws Suddenly Launched—Second Offenders Sent to Jail—Did Premier Whitney Call for Action?

(Special Despatch to The Globe.) South Porcupine, July 26.—Fifty-one culprits, several of them well-to-do and heretofore held in esteem by the community, were gathered in with startling suddenness yesterday. They were charged with various infractions of the liquor license laws, from "blind-pigging" to connivance with the illicit sale or importation of liquor into this prohibited district.

The whole of the defendants were haled before Magistrate T. H. Torrance. There were 37 convictions; fines aggregating over $3,000—in almost every case the limit—were imposed; two of the offenders who had been previously convicted were sent to jail for twelve and three months respectively, and the remaining ten were remanded for a week to enable the Crown to secure further evidence against them.

Coupled with the heavy fines for first offenders and the jail terms for second offenders was a vigorous intimation from the Magistrate that the cleaning-up was to be permanent, that liquor law breakers would henceforth find the atmosphere of Porcupine unhealthy, and that jail

THE NEWS OF THE DAY

CONTENTS. Detailed weather report, page 6. 1. Bloodshed in Ireland. War almost certain in eastern Europe. Lundy's Lane celebration. On trial of Gamey. 2. Hamilton news. 3. Liberals cooped up at Le Pas. The Calliaux trial. 4. Editorials. 5. Woman at work and at play. 6-7. Toronto news. 8-11. Financial and commercial news. 10-11. Sporting news. 12-13. Condensed advertising. 14. King's Prize won by Scotman.

TORONTO. Judge Morson will again sue the city for refund of his income tax. Mrs. Mary J. Burnham, Ontario street, was fatally injured by a street car. William Allison, Jones avenue, drank carboic acid in mistake for medicine and died.

THE DOMINION. An inspiring celebration of the centenary of peace took place Saturday at Lundy's Lane. Ald. R. G. Spotted, a pioneer Oddfellow of Port Arthur, fell dead at a memorial decoration service. Fifty-one charges for breach of liquor laws were suddenly laid at Porcupine on Saturday, and second offenders jailed. Jack Sowden, a twelve-year-old Boy Scout of Souris, Manitoba, went in a canoe to the rescue of four drowning persons and saved them all.

(Continued on Page 2, Cols. 2 and 3.)

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 5.)