Interesting Interview With Servian Doctor

MADAME SERVIAN SHOULDN'T HAVE SHOWN HERSelf.

Outside, July 21—Mrs. Charles D. Young, the famous Servian woman doctor, has been visited by the Servian Prime Minister and the military authorities in connection with the recent disturbance in the country. The Prime Minister, in a public interview, said:

"We have been informed that Madame Servian has been treating wounded soldiers and that she has not been charged with any crime. However, we have evidence that she has been using medical aid to aid in the rebellion. As a result of this, we will not permit her to practice medicine in the country.

"We have reason to believe that Madame Servian is not only well connected in the country, but also has a large number of adherents who are opposed to the government. Therefore, we have decided to ban her from the country and she will be deported to another country where she will not be able to practice medicine."
