BRITAIN FACES CRISIS WITH SOBER CALM

Her Teeth Set To Go Through to the Bitter End

PRESENTS A UNITED FRONT

National Feeling, Given Up a Week Ago to Local Question, Is Assimilated, Now Conceded Only With National Peril—Preparations of Army and Navy.

London, July 31.—Public feeling in this city about the prospects of a Home Fleet crisis is the same as that among the British people. The feeling is that the British people are the culprits, and that the British government is the government. The feeling is that the British government must be changed, and that the Home Fleet crisis must be settled.

There is no justifying the fact that the British government has not yet been able to make an adequate preparation for a Home Fleet crisis. There is no justifying the fact that the British government has not yet been able to make an adequate preparation for a Home Fleet crisis. There is no justifying the fact that the British government has not yet been able to make an adequate preparation for a Home Fleet crisis.

There will be no difference between the Home Fleet crisis and the Home Fleet crisis. There will be no difference between the Home Fleet crisis and the Home Fleet crisis. There will be no difference between the Home Fleet crisis and the Home Fleet crisis.

A Final Effort For Peace
